

PebbleBash 2016

Delegate feedback from PebblePad's Global 'Future Ready' Conference.

About PebbleBash 2016

September 2016 saw delegates from 3 continents, and over 40 different organisations, descend upon sunny Shropshire (the spiritual home of PebblePad and the company's global HQ) for a 'Future Ready' themed conference looking at how to help and equip learners for the journey ahead.

Delegate Feedback

We asked delegates to rate all aspects of their conference experience on a 5 * rating scale (with 1 being poor and 5 being excellent). The figures below, and on the following page, represent the percentage of delegates that gave the respective category a 4* rating or higher.

We asked delegates...

Would you attend a future PebbleBash Conference? And 100% said yes

Would you recommend PebbleBash to colleagues? And 100% said yes

PebbleBash is one of the most inclusive, friendly, and thought-provoking conferences there is - all based on pedagogy.

Absolutely how it should be - learning and fun
